"With A New Tale Every Year"

VOLUME XXVI
Published by the
CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL
Bellevue, Ohio

DEDICATION

To Miss Florence Bates

To one who understands the mysteries of mathematics and who has made those mysteries clear to her many students,
To Miss Florence Bates, friend as well as instructor, the class of 1947 with grateful appreciation dedicates this Comet.

FOREWORD

From four counties, Huron, Sandusky, Erie, and Seneca, come the students of Bellevue High School. All four of these counties bear Indian names. The Hurons, the Eries, and the Senecas were Indian tribes who once hunted and fished in this area; while Sandusky, or "Otsaandosti," is an old Indian name for "the place on the cold waters."

It is fitting, then, that the staff of the 1947 Comet should choose an Indian theme. As the Indians of old gazed with wonder at "Ishkoodah," the Comet, so now may the reader follow this more modern Comet as it streaks through the school year, 1946-1947.

Class Song

Words: Belma Knauss

Oh, how we'll miss
Dear old Bellevue High,
We've had lots of fun
While we worked for our goals.

Clear thoughts, words, and deeds
Also knowledge supreme
Were taught by our school
For our bright future days.

Tune: "The Anniversary Song"

Maroon and white are the colors we chose.
The flower is the talisman rose.
Our motto will be: "Our foundation is laid
And our success is assured."

Farewell, Bellevue High,
Teachers and students too,
The class, forty-seven,
Will ne'er forget you.

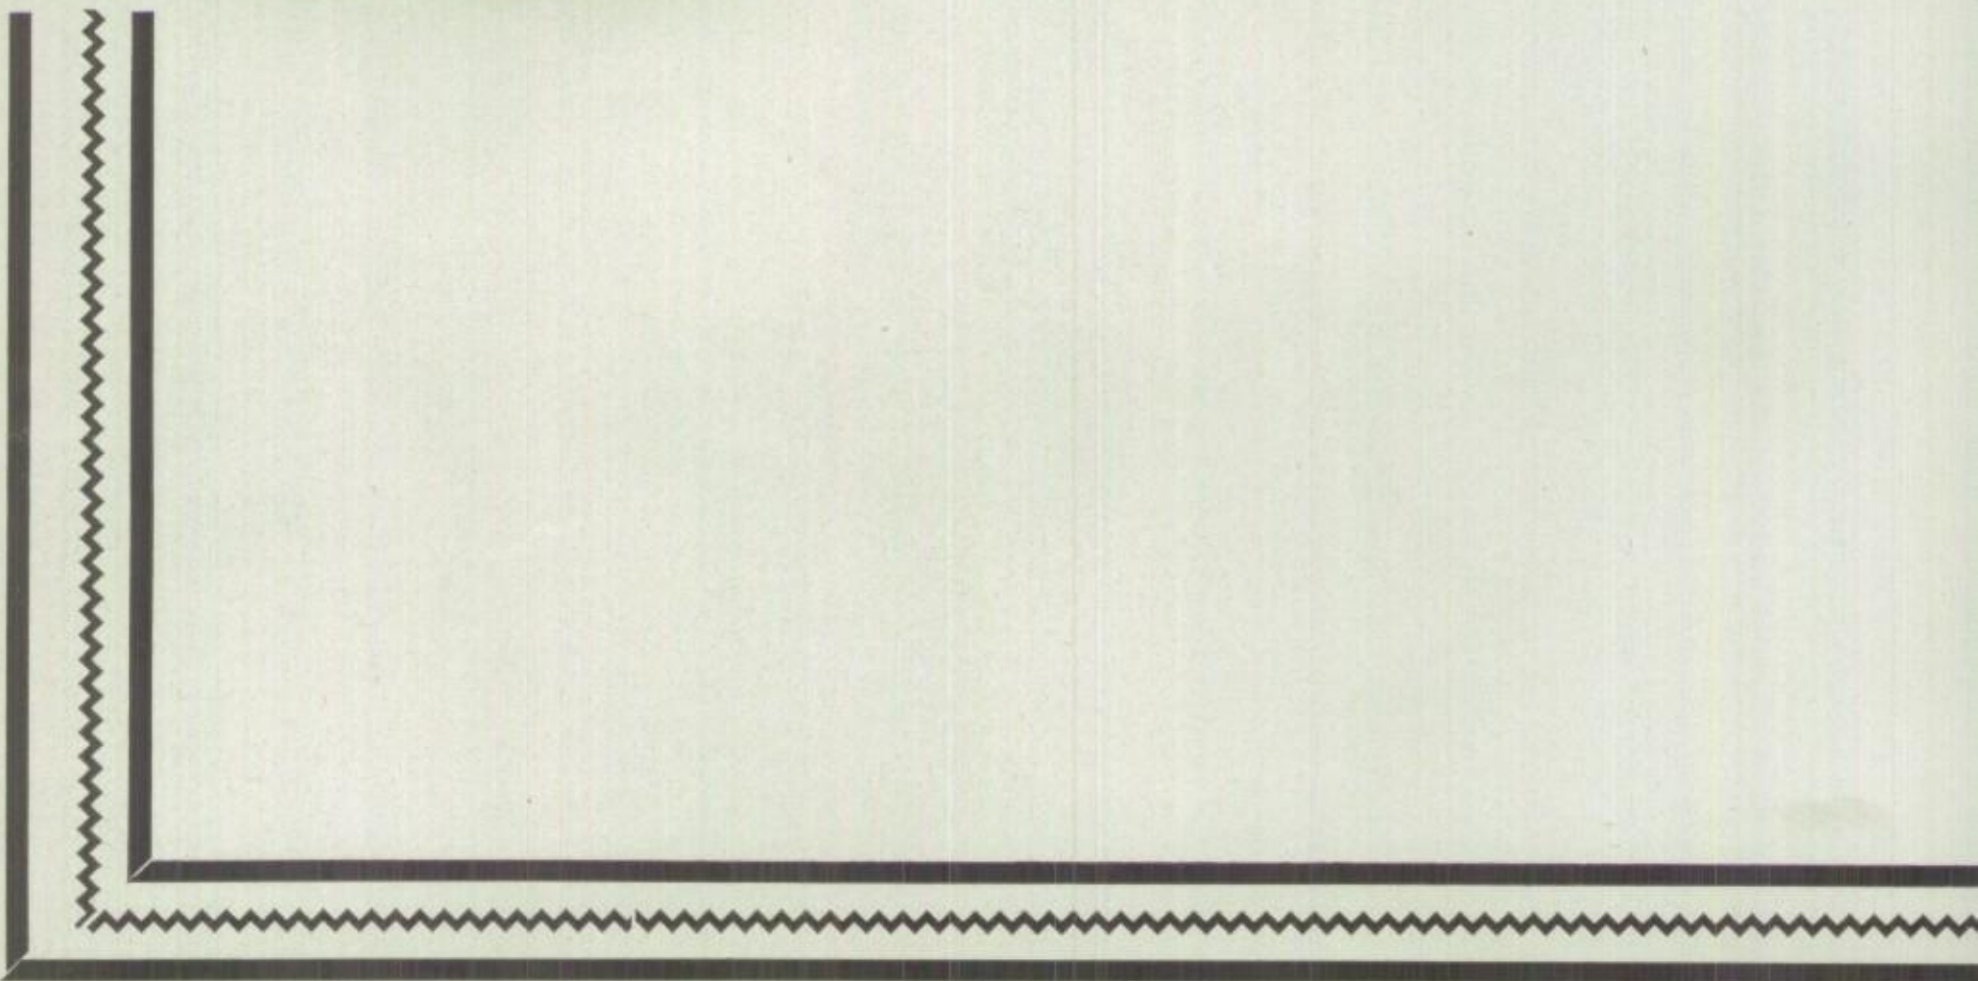

Senior Party

With squaws and warriors all wearing gay Indian blankets, feathers, and war paint, the Senior Indians held their annual pow-wow in the gym on November 20. The group was divided into six tribes who competed in an exciting treasure hunt in which mysterious directions led them in a mad dash around school grounds and buildings. Each senior homeroom presented a short humorous skit, and dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

Bob Abell was in charge of arrangements; and Belma Knauss, of refreshments. Advisers attending were Miss Erma Buffington, Miss Adeline Wright, and Herbert Wolfe.

' Learned of everyone his language,
Learned his name and all his secrets.'

UNDERCLASSMEN

JUNIORS . . . younger braves

OFFICERS

Dick Andrews, treasurer; Marilyn King, secretary; Jim Smith, vice-president; Pete Dietzel, president.

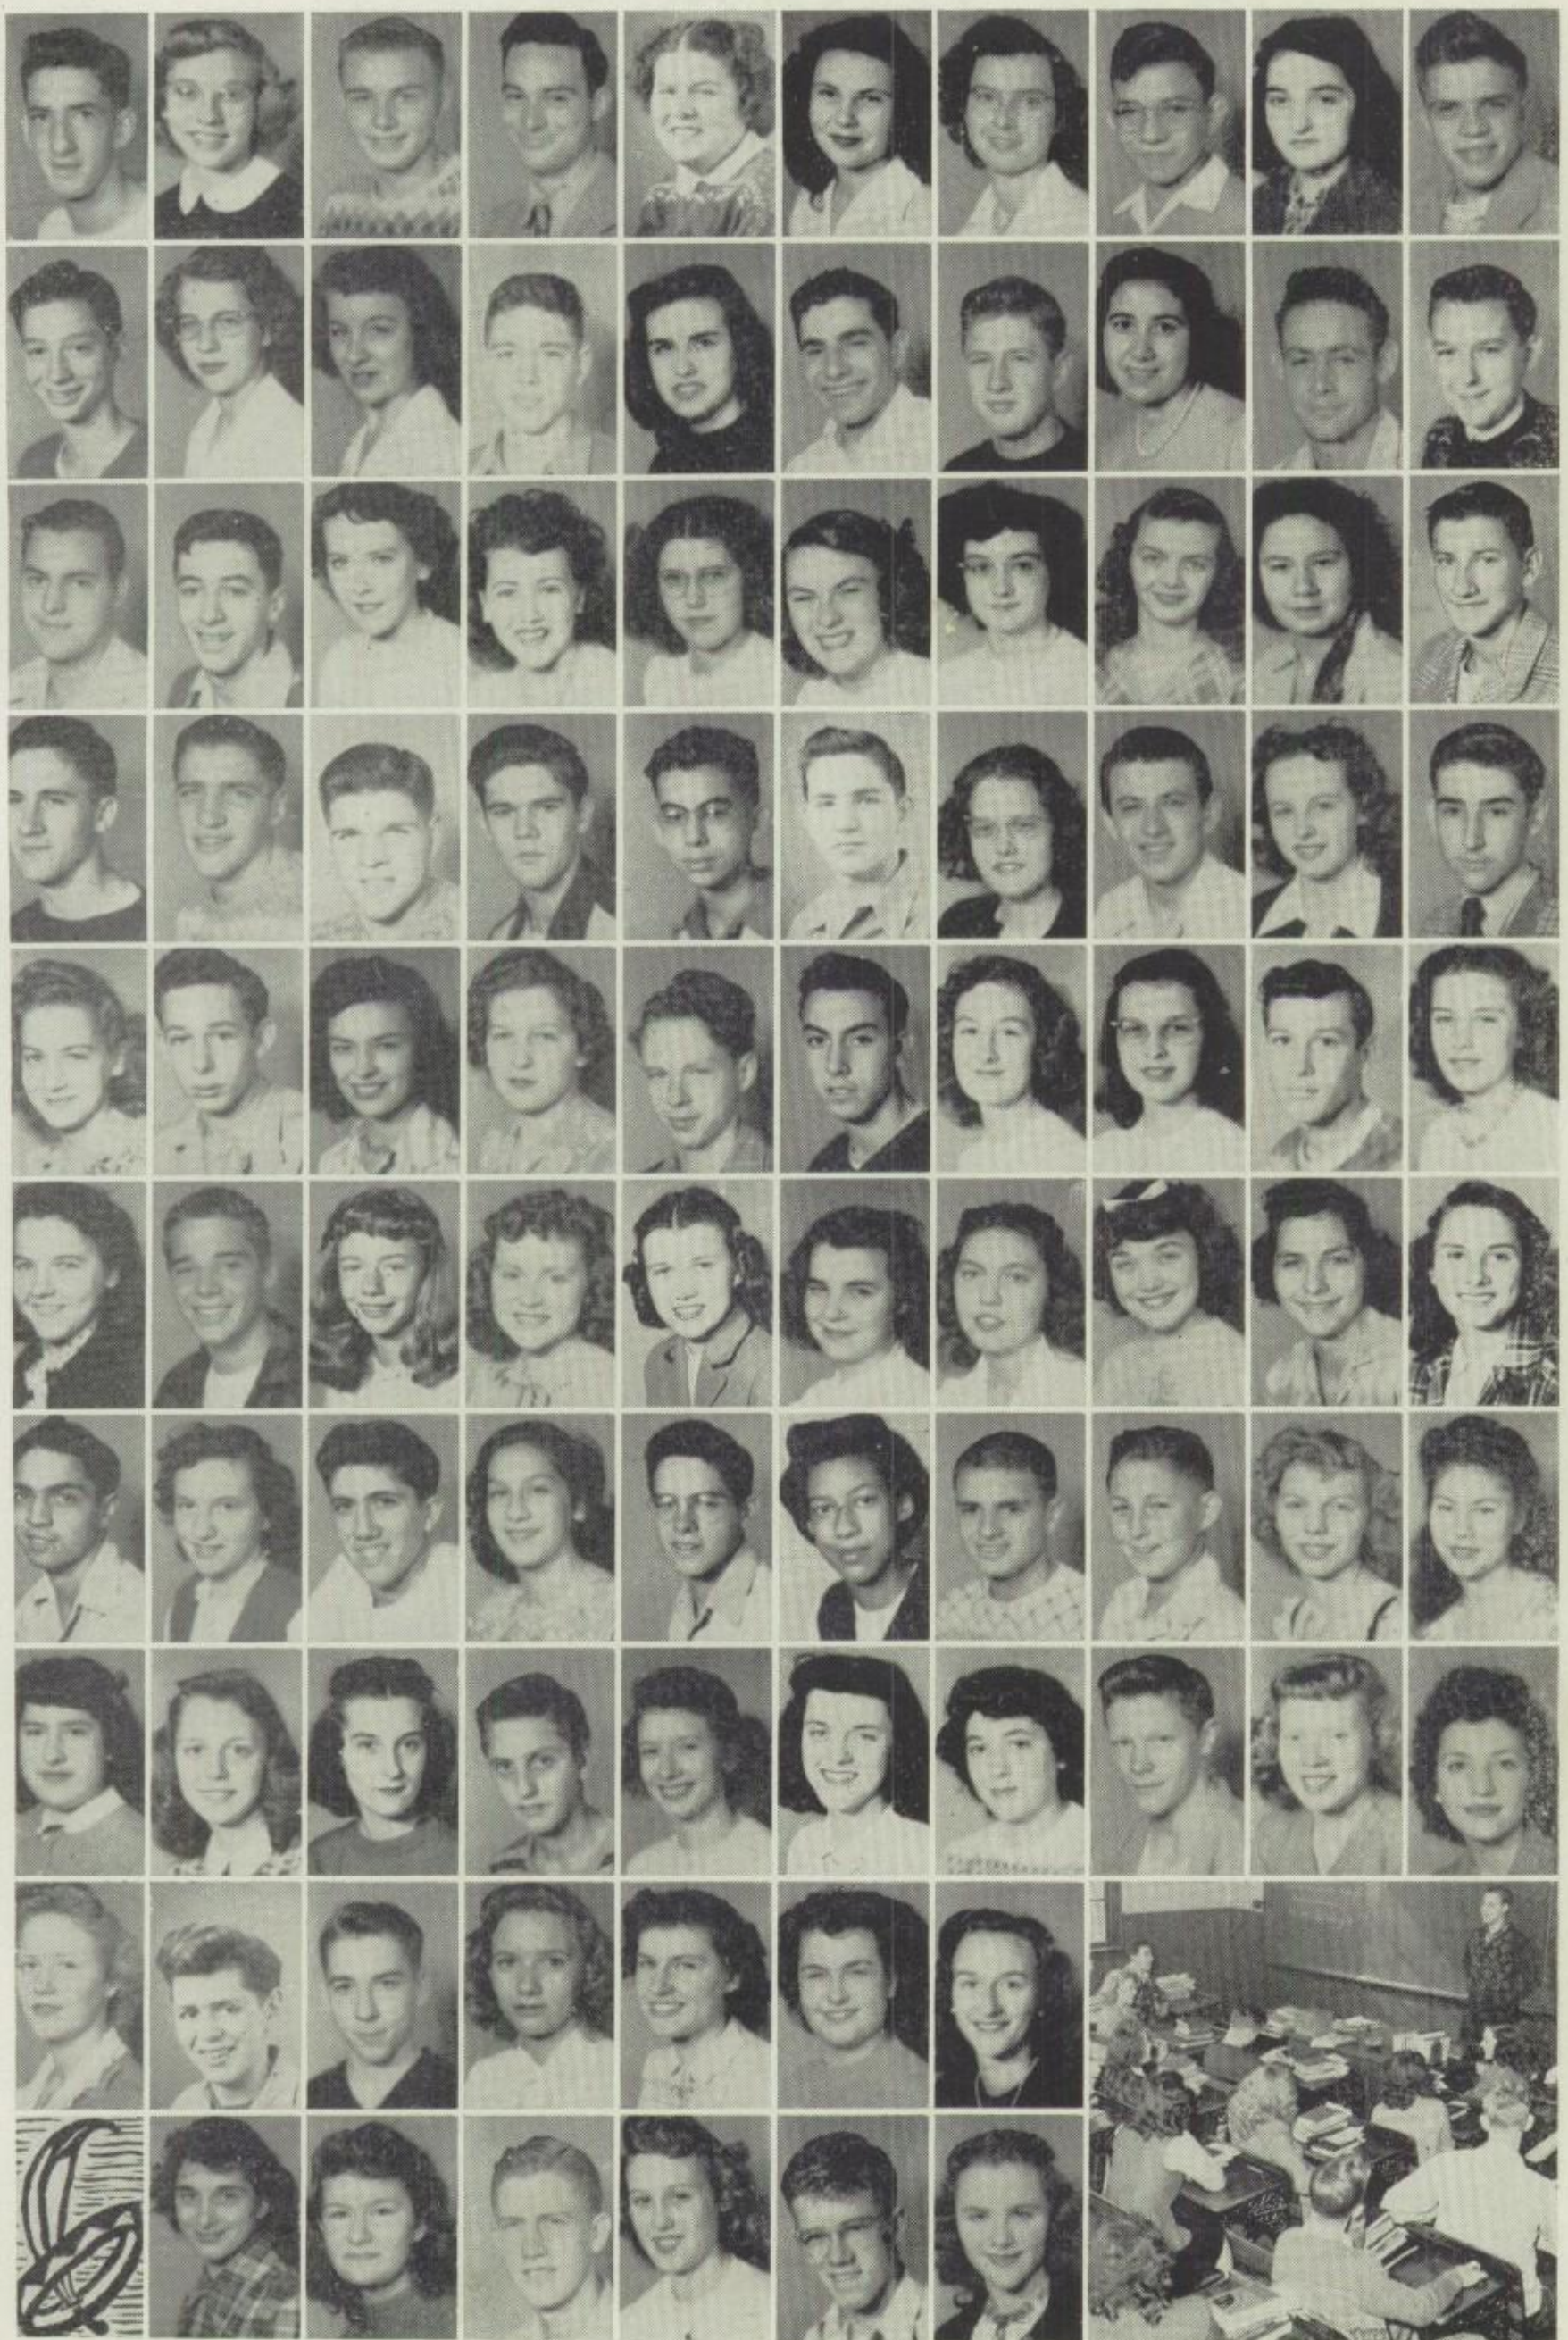

Busy all year were the members of the Junior tribe, numbering ninety-four braves. Seventeen football players, five basketball stars, numerous club officers, and a popular junior girls' sextet, all added feathers to the triumphant head-dress of the class.

Screams heard on November 13 came, not from Indians on the warpath, but from the excited audience at the Junior class play, "Tiger House." At a papoose party on December 11, Rico Censi's short overalls and green tie won him the first prize. Then on April 11, came the big event, the annual prom or powwow when the Juniors entertained the Senior tribe.

THE BUILDING

JUNIOR HIGH BAND

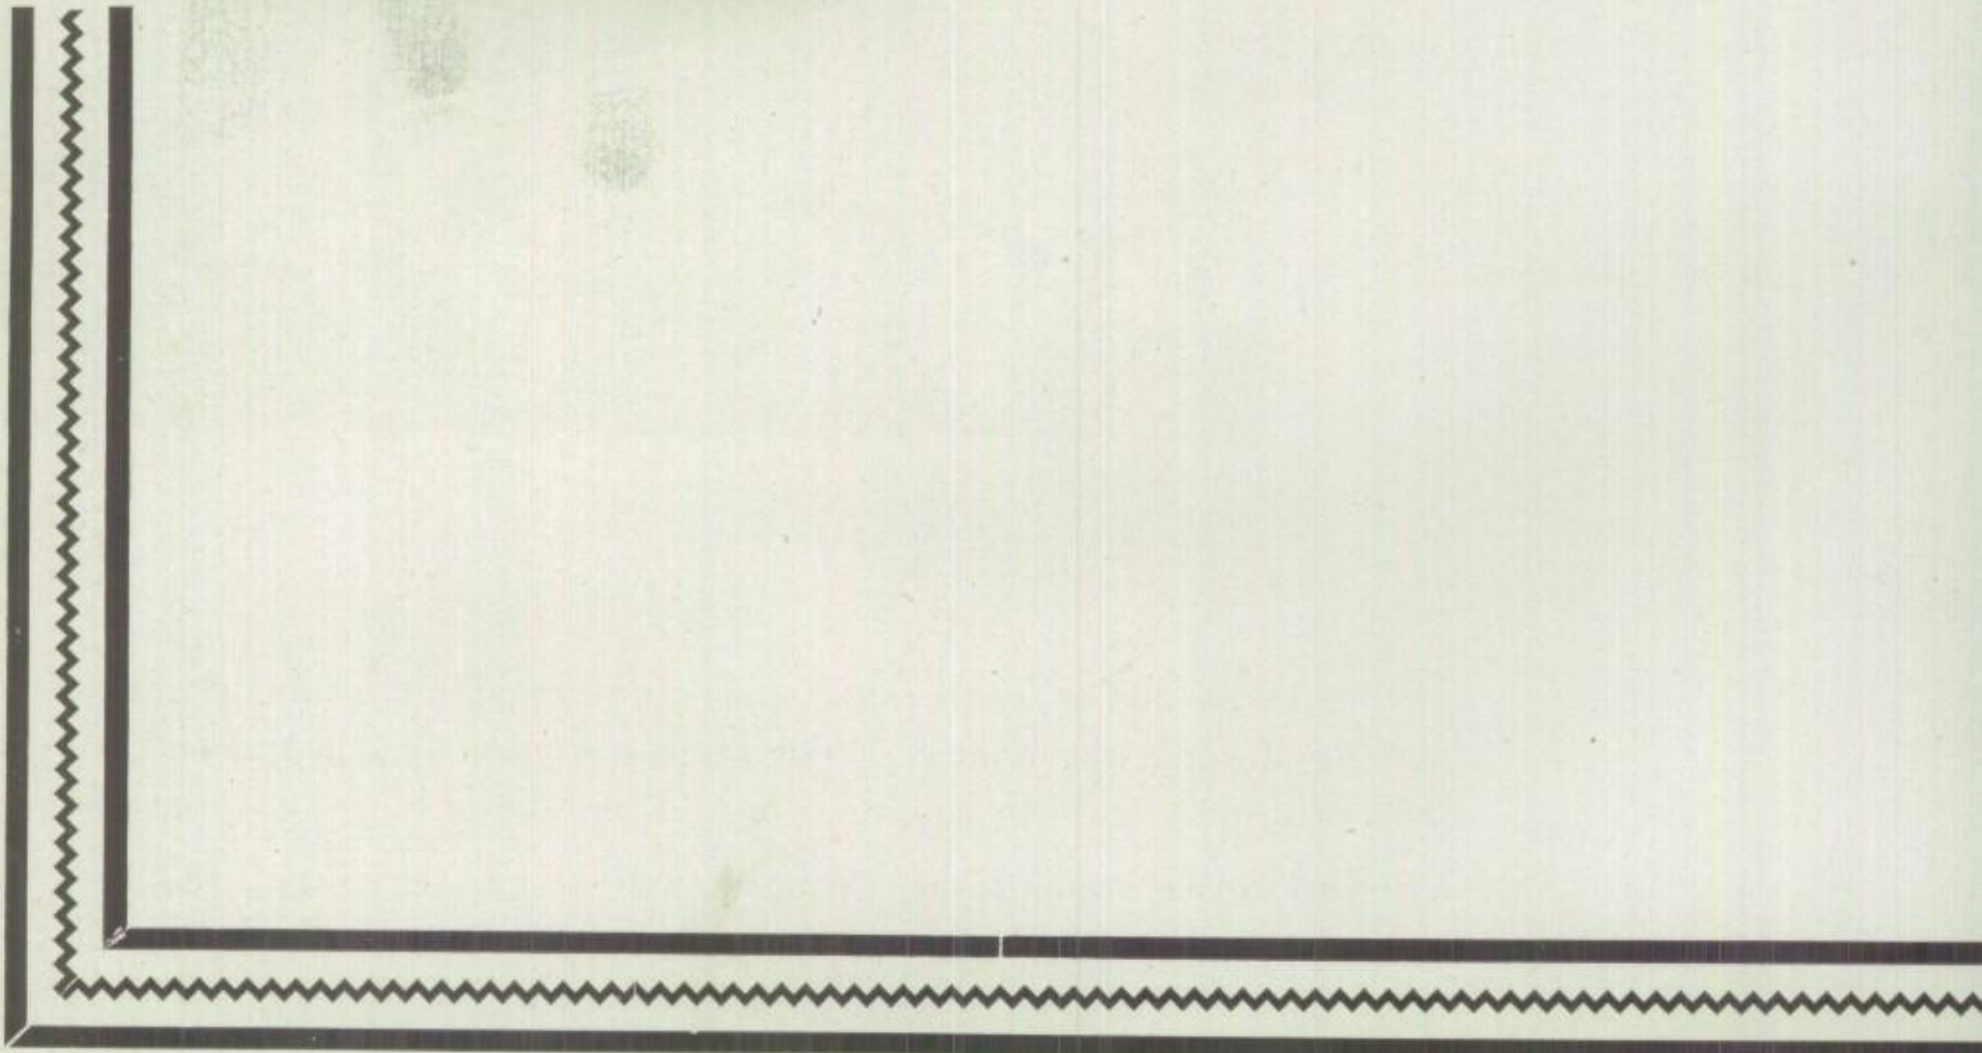

With all Junior High pupils participating in either the presentation or the staging, the annual Junior High program was given February 12. Mr. Rosenthal and Mr. Krumm directed the Junior High band and chorus.

The band opened the program with three selections, followed by two numbers by a clarinet quartet and several selections by a trumpet quartet. Piano solos were offered by Jean Hall, Nancy Lou Mitchell, and Shirley Mizer.

Folk songs were given by the chorus with connecting narratives given by Donald Adams, Nancy Lou Mitchell, Ronald Reitz, Nancy Wolfe, Kathryn Farrow, and Jack Drexel.

Pictures on the wigwam wall? A flash of light streaks across the sky, and the thrill of a Comet sets the whole tribe to talking.

The 1947 Comet staff presents pictures of tribal life in B. H. S. Long hours result in the finished product, that shows the tribes of students in their everyday studies, the galaxy of activities, and moments of happy relaxation.

Working against time in the hope that the Comet would resume its pre-war May delivery schedule, the staff labored every day to make the 1947 edition the best ever as they met deadline after deadline for the final production.

Iwakta! Iwakta! (on the lookout) are the members of the Dial Staff as they scout the news of all the many activities of Bellevue High School. Enlarged to a four-column, four-page paper, the Dial goes every three weeks to every tribe member. In the Northwestern Ohio District Journalism Convention at Bowling Green, the Dial was awarded second place in its division. Carolyn Arnholt won first place in the newswriting contest and Jack Heter received honorable mention.

The council fires burned brightly as the 1946-1947 Student Council boosted the campaign, "A Better B.H.S." Under the leadership of President Steve Merk, the group purchased a new automatic phonograph to add to the amplification system, sponsored the Danforth award for the outstanding senior boy and girl (this year, Richard Boehler and Mary Louise Wilhelm), and headed a campaign to prevent cheating. The Council met every Thursday in the lounge.

Straight toward their target fly the arrows of the 1946-'47 Hi-Y, one of the most active Hi-Y groups in recent years.

They climaxed their efforts with the presentation of "Cornzapoppin," a hilarious hill-billy musical comedy, played by an all-male cast. Players included Vic George, Harold Hakes, Don Moyer, Tom Beard, Nap Videan, Frank LaSalle, and former Hi-Y members, Dee Henney, Bob Redd, Gene Frost, and Wilson Loudenslagel. The proceeds helped the Hi-Y clubs of Ohio raise $15,000 for the rehabilitation of Y.M.C.A.'s in Europe.

Among the other club get-togethers were a district Hi-Y meeting with George Campbell, noted song leader; holiday parties; and a combined Hi-Y, Y-Teen meeting with Dr. Albert J. Crombie as speaker. Weekly Monday night meetings were held at the Y.M.C.A.

The Y-Teen maidens, over a hundred strong, began a busy year when they entertained new members at Greenwood Heights on October 1.

After cabinet members had made plans in meetings held in the "wigwams" of Miss Erma Buffington, Miss Janice Arnholt, and Ellen Smetzer, they conducted initiation services on November 5.

November 14 brought two events to the Y-Teens. In the afternoon, Miss Blanche Sargeant, district executive director, explained the change from Girl Reserves to Y-Teens. In the evening, came the hilarity of a Sadie Hawkins dance when the squaws captured their braves for holy "padlock."

Bundle Day, when clothing for the needy of Europe was collected, a Christmas party for the younger children from the orphanage at Flat Rock, and a Christmas worship service kept the girls busy before the holidays.

Later important Y-Teen events included Miss Mary Cooper's talk on "Highlights of Events in 1946," a basket-

. . . F.H.A.

Future tepee makers are the members of the Future Homemakers of America, an organization for girls taking home economics and for girls who have already taken it for two years.

A birch bark canoe? No, it was a hay wagon that provided the transportation for the fall initiation. The smell of hotdogs roasting over open fires and the yelling of laughing girls all contributed to the pleasure of the evening at the Lyme school woods.

That F.H.A. girls are good cooks was proved when their "Jitney Supper" successfully catered to paying guests. Good home-cooked food and free coffee!

Although the buckskin and bead work have been replaced by rayons, satins, and wools, the clothes made by the F. H. A. girls aren't hard to look at! Bright colors and unusual patterns marked the year's styles.

The annual F. H. A. dance came during the Christmas season. The graceful maids and their braves danced to sweet tunes,—as long skirts swirled.

LIBRARY AIDES

These Serve Us Daily

Perhaps because the high-school library was closed from September to December during the first semester, when no high-school librarian could be found, B.H.S. students used it with greater enthusiasm than ever before when it was finally reopened on January 6, after Christmas vacation.

Still without a school librarian, City Librarian Elsa Anderson and two assistants from the city library, Miss Virginia Crawl and Mrs. Glen Spangler, arranged to share the duties of supervision of the high-school branch. Twenty-five girls, working under them during free study periods, gave valuable service as library aides:

Emily Arlin, Rosa Lee Bean, Carol Beiler, Ann Bruggeman, Donelda Christman, Beverly Cloud, Virginia Colvin, Ignatia De Liberto, Mildred Van Etten, Ruth Ferres, Marilyn Hoffman, Jean Kegerreis, Bonnie Lou MacManus, Agnes Mahl, Marna Metzger, Phyllis Meyer, Edith Monarchi, Gertrude Nuby, Loretta Nuby, Marjorie Phillips, Rita Schoen, Pauline Swedersky, Jean White, Joan White.

The club activities which the library aides would normally have enjoyed, are necessarily suspended until a full-time librarian can be secured.

CHRISTMAS PLAY

Christmas comes to B.H.S. — home rooms gaily decorated with cheerful Christmas colors — surprise Christmas gifts being made in shop and home economics classes — classroom parties and exchanges — the fragrant aroma of Christmas cookies baking in the kitchen — the Latin classes caroling through the halls — all these are Christmas traditions at B.H.S.

Most important Christmas tradition is the annual Christmas play and program of Christmas music on the last afternoon before the holiday vacation. This year the play was "Pop Reads the Christmas Carol," presented by the speech classes on December 20, under the direction of Miss Esther Schachtele.

The cast included the following:

Father Jones, a peace-loving business man	- - - -	Harold Hakes
Mother Jones, pleasant, middle-aged housewife	- - -	Janice Hamer
Paul Jones, their nineteen-year old son	- - - - -	Dick Glasgo

ORCHESTRA . . . melody

As the string of an Indian's bow was necessary if he was to live successfully in the wilderness, so the string section is essential to an orchestra. Pleased this year with eighteen members playing stringed instruments, Carl O. Lenz, B.H.S. orchestra director, hopes for even more violins, violas, and cellos next year. He reports, "I am pleased with the improvement of the orchestra and hope for increasing interest."

It is the orchestra whose music creates the hush that precedes the rising of the curtain for all school plays. It is the orchestra, too, which makes the perfect atmosphere for Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

In spite of being limited to one rehearsal a week, the group prepared an excellent program for the annual Bellevue Spring Music Festival and for the Northern Ohio League Orchestra Festival at Willard.

As colorful tribes of Indians gathered to the music of the drummer, so schools of the Northern Ohio League met in the brilliance of blue, orange, red, and gold uniforms when Norwalk, Galion, Willard, and Bellevue met at B.H.S. for a massed concert.

Reviving the custom of accompanying the football team, the MARCHING BAND took part in the half-time performances at the Norwalk and Shelby games. Unusual formations featured their marching at home games.

The student band director, Donald Schaefer, made his first appearance directing a number for the annual band concert on April 23, when the CONCERT BAND presented a program of classical and popular music.

The PEP BAND, directed by Dick Hickman, added spirit to basketball games and pep meetings.

BOYS' CHORUS

MIXED CHORUS

Beating the time even more rhythmically than did the Indian drummers of old, director of vocal music, Arch B. Krumm, led his choral groups in numerous concerts, chief of which were the local spring music festival and the league choral festival at Galion. Besides the three large choruses, Mr. Krumm directed several small ensembles which enriched the community.

SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarship Team

Interest in scholarship held a high place in school activities during the year as students took several different scholarship tests.

In the STATE GENERAL SENIOR SCHOLARSHIP TEST, Jack Heter placed first in Huron County; other Bellevue students in the upper ten in the county were Don Moyer, third; Frank LaSalle, sixth; and Dick Boehler, seventh. Jack Heter's score in the same test put him in fifth place in the boys' division of the Bowling Green State University district and gave him "honorable mention" for being in the upper one per cent in the state. Don Moyer also received honorable mention in the state, while he and Frank LaSalle and Dick Boehler all received honorable mention in the Bowling Green District.

Thirty seniors, selected from the upper forty per cent of the class took this general senior scholarship test: Bob Abell, Rita Baldwin, Jim Ball, Carol Beiler, Marion Beiler, Dick Boehler, Catherine Brown, Mary Canfield, Jean Erf, Victor George, Eugene Gerber, Dick Glasgo, Harry Gumbert, Harold Hakes, Jack Heter, Belma Knauss, Maryellen Koch, Catherine Koser, Madeline Lamb, Frank LaSalle, Don Moyer, Marilyn Nelson, Phylis Ocker, Jack Palmer, Susan Reitzel, Ed Ruffing, Norman Shelley, Ellen Smetzer, Dick Starr, and Ann Wolfe.

DISTRICT SCHOLARSHIP TESTS in a variety of subjects were taken at Heidelberg College on May 3, by students who had already placed high in Every-Pupil tests taken in November and in March. Scores made by Bellevue entrants were not received in time for inclusion in the Comet. The team from Bellevue included the following:

General Science—Harold Colvin, Albert Houck, Willa Hogarth, alternate. Biology—Tom Beard, Arthur Parlow, Dick Geiger, alternate. Chemistry—Harry Gumbert, Thomas Gruss, Peter Dietzel, alternate. Physics—Don Moyer, Charles Ferres, Jack Palmer, alternate. Pre-Flight Aeronautics—Bob Abell, Duane Stocker, Frank LaSalle, alternate.

Algebra one—Donald Drewes, Peggy Wilhelm, Melvin Koch, alternate. Plane Geometry—Charles Schott, Bill Ruffing, Robert Stephenson, alternate. Algebra two—Bill Gohlike, William Drewes, Dick LaSalle, alternate.

American History—Carolyn Arnholt, Gene Gressley, Virginia Colvin, alternate. World History—Bill Dunn, Pauline Swedersky, Dolores Dupler, alternate.

Bookkeeping—Jean Erf, Maryellen Koch, Jim Ball, alternate.

Earlier in the year, four seniors took the PEPSI-COLA TEST: Richard Boehler, Jean Erf, Victor George, and Jack Heter. Jack Heter and Frank LaSalle took the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY TEST.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

"Scholarship, Service, Leadership, Character"

Twelve seniors and four juniors have successfully met the requirements for the National Honor Society, the highest honor a high-school student may attain. Fifteen per cent of the upper one-third of the graduating class and five per cent of the upper fourth of the junior class are selected for this honor on a four-fold basis: Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. The Bellevue High School chapter was organized in 1924.

QUILL AND SCROLL

"Clear And Forceful Writing"

Many long hours of reporting and editing for the Dial and perhaps writing for the Comet enable worthy students of at least Junior standing to be eligible for membership in Quill and Scroll, international honorary organization for high-school journalists. Candidates must be in the upper third of their classes and must have had a great deal of excellent material printed in school publications. B.H.S. has been a member of Quill and Scroll since 1927.

SENIOR STAND

Though venison and maize were not on the menu, the snacks sold at the Senior Stand at Harmon Field—the hot dogs, pop, ice cream, and potato chips—tasted just as delicious in the crisp autumn air as did the Indian feasts of old. Twenty-one seniors put in long hours at the stand during the five home football games, and though plagued with shortages, piled up a fine profit for the class Comet fund. Each girl whose name is starred took her turn as stand manager.

Although the 1946-47 football record of one victory to eight losses was not impressive, the co-operation and teamwork of the players and coaches were excellent. The squad was honored at the annual football banquet held in the Central High gym, December 18, with Walter J. (Wallie) Weber, director of "B" team activities at the University of Michigan, as the guest speaker.

Opening the season on September 13, the Redmen were defeated by Fremont St. Joe, 37 to 18, in spite of three touchdown passes from Jim Ball to Norm Shelley, Milt Bruckner, and Dean Todd.

In their initial league encounter, the Upper Sandusky Rams handed the locals a 53 to 2 lacing. The only bright spot of the evening came when Frank LaSalle blocked an Upper punt that rolled out of the end zone.

The Redmen were humbled for the third straight time before a Dad's Night crowd at Harmon Field by the Crestline Bulldogs, 12 to 6.

Two extra points were the margin of defeat for the Bellevueans at Willard, as Jack Gabel, Milt Bruckner, and Ted Nyerges cracked the goal line to bring the score to 20 to 18.

... on the warpath

Loop defeat number four was hung on the Redmen by the Norwalk Raiders by a 47 to 0 count.

The locals held the Shelby Whippets in check for two quarters, but the Whippets let loose a second-half attack that sent the Redmen down, 20 to 6.

Victory finally made its appearance in the Redmen camp with Norm Shelley tallying two touchdowns and Milt Bruckner accounting for the extra points as the locals trimmed Galion, 14 to 7.

The following Friday the Bucyrus Redmen shut out the locals by a 21 to 0 margin on Harmon Field.

Putting forth a stubborn battle, the Redmen were nosed out in the season finale by the Port Clinton Redskins, 7 to 6, on November 8. Steve Merk hit pay dirt for the only Bellevue score.

HOMEcoming

Queen Nora Starr reigned over the Homecoming festivities at Harmon Field on Nov. 8 as Bellevue High School's first Homecoming Queen. Nora and her court of five lovely attendants were presented bouquets by the Student Council, and then Steve Merk, captain of the football team, crowned her "Queen of Bellevue High School."

FOOTBALL . . . senior braves

SENIOR LETTERMEN

BOB ABELL, half-back — Although he didn't see much action, Bob played good defensive football when he was in.

TED ARNOLD, quarterback and half-back — Playing his first season on the squad, Ted did most of the kicking-off and served as back-field utility man.

JIM BALL, quarterback and half-back—Jim was switched to half-back in mid-season, and he did some good hard running in the last few games.

DICK GLASGO, center — Making his first appearance as a Redman gridder, Dick saw limited action at the center and line-backer positions.

DICK GOHLIKE, tackle and guard — Dick played a bang-up game throughout the season, his first year on the starting eleven.

FRANK LASALLE, center — His center work was flawless, and his general line-play, line-backing, and defensive signal-calling were outstanding.

STEVE MERK, right-half — As captain of the team, Steve won his fourth varsity letter while playing good, hard football.

DON MOYER, end and tackle — "Blondie" performed creditably on defense and offense during the season.

NORM SHELLEY, half-back and quarterback — A Navy veteran, Norm handled the T-formation during the last part of the season and scored both touch-downs in the victory over Galion.

DICK STARR, end and tackle — Dick was sent in frequently during the year, and he played well at each position.

CHARLIE FERRES, manager — Charlie checked plays for the coach during games and spent many hours lining the field.

JACK PALMER, manager — "Tillie" worked hard on the sidelines and answered many calls when in charge of the medicine kit.

Directing the Bellevue basketball team in his first year as cage mentor, Coach Kenny Sampson turned out an aggressive ball club and led his boys to a successful season.

After winning their first four ball games, the Redmen lost two of the next three and then captured nine wins in their last thirteen contests.

The Red and White lost its first league game to Upper Sandusky, but then defeated the other six loop teams to tie Upper Sandusky for the Northern Ohio League championship.

Bellevue was fourth-seeded in the sectional tournament, but they bowed to Mansfield in the semi-finals.

THE SEASON

The Redmen of Central High successfully opened their 1946-47 hard-court season by defeating a veteran Bowling Green Bobcat five 37-27 on the local floor on Nov. 29. Dean Todd, lanky junior center, paced the attack with 10 points.

In their first out-of-town game, the Redmen defeated the Lorain Steelers 38-37 on Dec. 3. Senior Forward Jim Ball scored 11 points, and senior Guard Norm Shelley made a bucket and eight free throws for 10 points.

The tall Craftsmen from Toledo Macomber invaded the locals' floor on Dec. 6 and went home with a 42-31 defeat. Jim Ball tallied 14 points for the Red and White.

Jim Ball set a season's high as he poured 18 points into the hoops as the locals defeated the Mansfield Tygers, 53-47, on the Bellevue floor, Dec. 10.

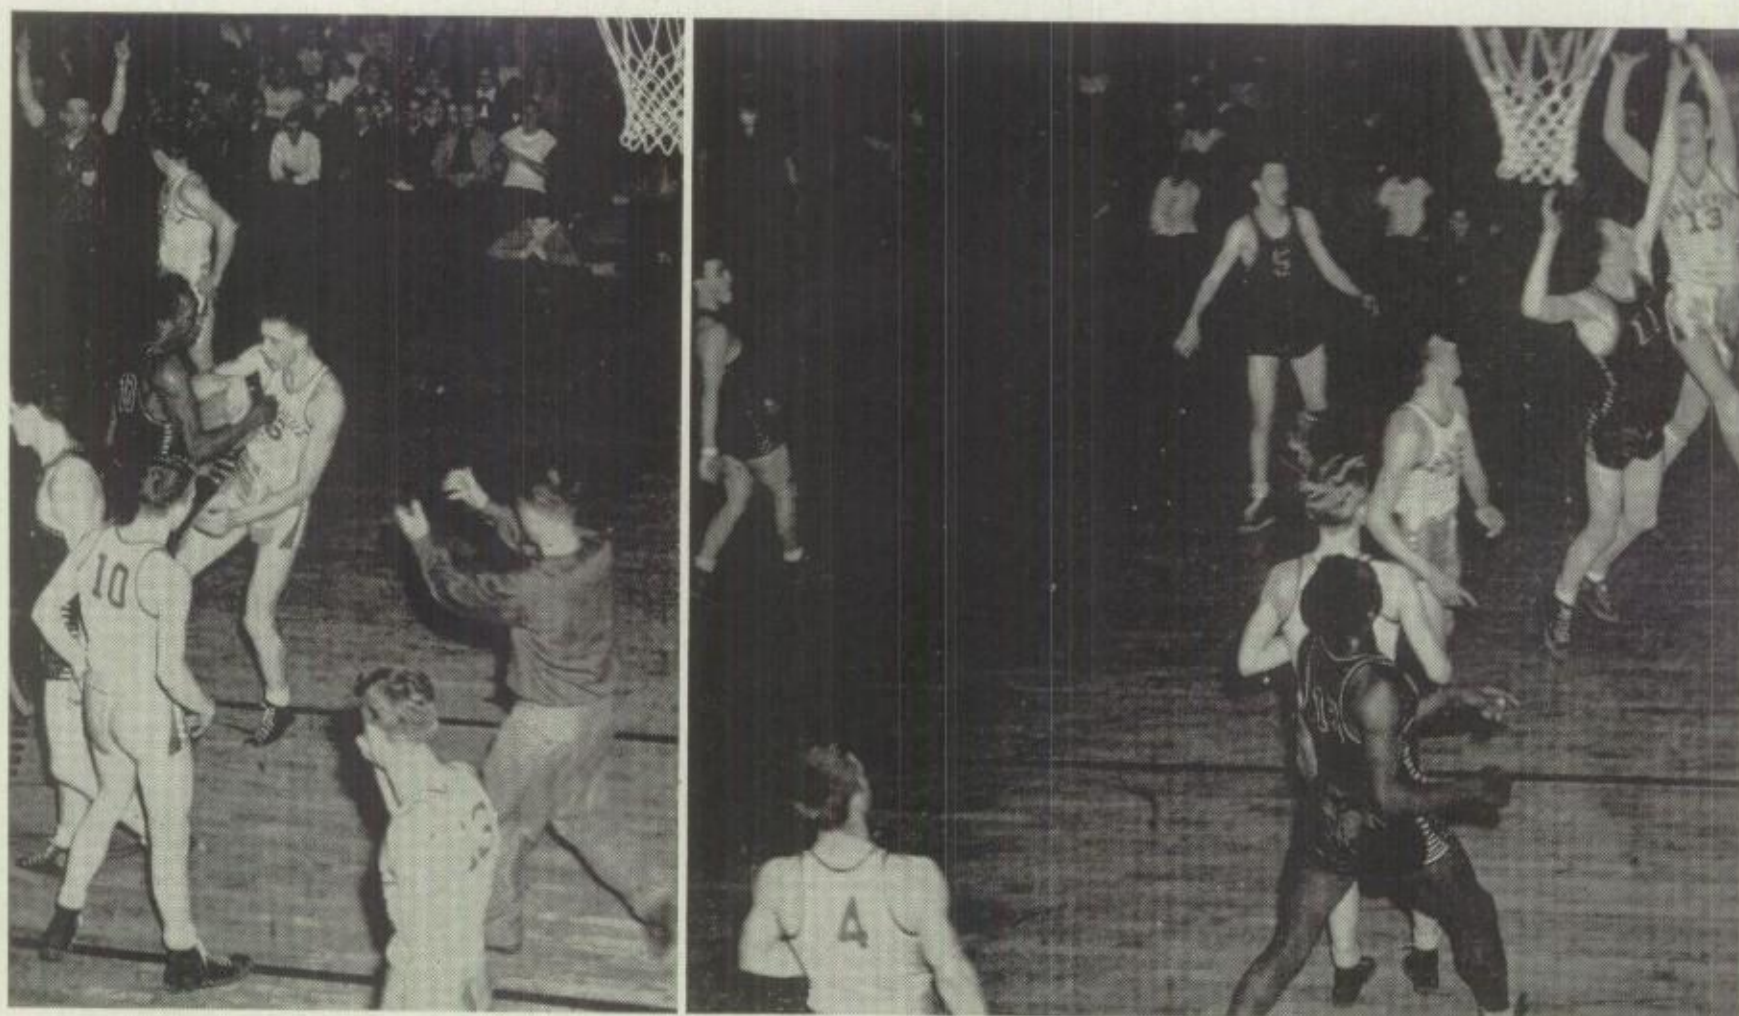

Friday, Dec. 13, proved unlucky for the Bellevue quintet, and they were defeated by the Upper Sandusky Rams in the first league game, 44-36. Dean Todd made 12 points firing at the local hoops.

Norm Shelley tossed in 12 points as the Redmen defeated the Willard Crimson Flashes 47-29. The game was played on Dec. 20 on the losers' floor.

Jim Ball tied All-Ohio Bob Green of the 1944-45 Whiz Kids for high scoring honors with 15, but the Alumni walked off with a 51-38 victory. The contest played on Dec. 26, brought an overflow crowd to the local gym to see the former state champions in action.

When Norwalk was host to the Red and White on Jan. 3, the Redmen completely surprised the Raiders by coming home with a 39-30 triumph. Norm Shelley scored a dozen points for the locals.

Sophomore Forward Milt Bruckner showered the Port Clinton baskets with 16 points as the Redmen defeated the Redskins, 57-50, on Jan. 10.

Galion's lanky Tigers came to town on Jan. 17 and went home with a 54-36 defeat. Jim Ball again led the onslaught with 14 tallies.

Dick Glasgo's desperation heave from mid-court in the first overtime, and a brace of free throws by Jim Ball in the "sudden death" period gave the Redmen a 47-45 win from the Shelby Whippets. Ball and Milt Bruckner each scored 13 points on the Shelby floor Jan. 24.

The Bellevue offensive failed to materialize, and the Fremont Little Giants captured a 34-26 verdict here on Jan. 28. The nine points scored by Jim Ball gave him high honors.

With Jim Ball again hitting consistently with 17 tallies, the locals downed the Bucyrus Redmen, 48-41 in Bucyrus on Jan. 31.

A smooth-operating Bellevue attack rolled over the Port Clinton Redskins, 72-34, here on Feb. 7. Jim Ball continued his blistering pace with 19 markers as the Redmen rolled to their high game total and their eleventh victory in fourteen contests.

The roof virtually fell in on the locals at Sandusky on Feb. 11 as the Blue Streaks handed the Redmen a 51-24 lacing. Jim Ball and Dean Todd managed to gather six points each.

Rushing to a 38-17 half-time margin, the Redmen coasted to a 57-41 victory over the Crestline Bulldogs here on Feb. 14. Jim Ball hit the hoops for 18 counters.

Despite Milt Bruckner's individual attack of 18 points, the Redmen fell before the Norwalk Raiders here on Feb. 15. The final score was 54-45.

The Redmen completed their regular schedule by downing the Elyria Pioneers, 47-33, on the Elyria floor, Feb. 22. Jim Ball poured in 15 tallies to lead the Red and White to victory.

After being seeded in the district tournament at Sandusky, the Redmen barely managed to eke out a 49-47 win over the Shelby Whippets on Feb. 28. Jim Ball tied his season's high with 19 markers.

Mansfield's Tygers scored seven quick points in the last minute of play to eliminate the Redmen from the tournament, 45-38. The contest was one of the semi-final games played on March 7. Jim Ball dropped in 10 points in the final game of the season. It was the squad's sixth loss in twenty games.

BASKETBALL LETTERMEN

TED ARNOLD — Ted was counted on to fill in for one of the first five at any time. A potential scorer, he was always a steady player.

JIM BALL — Jim was the season's top scorer and the high-point man for thirteen games. His one-handed shots from the side and from the foul stripe kept Bellevue going in many a contest. Jim was elected the most valuable player by his teammates.

MILT BRUCKNER — Although only a sophomore, Milt played on the first string and was known for his ability to grab rebounds.

CHARLIE FERRES — Although not seeing much action, Charlie, the smallest man on the squad, gave the fans numerous thrills with his long set shots.

JIM GABEL — Jim's big game was the Port Clinton contest when he scored 8 points. He offered good insurance for the first five.

DICK GLASGO — A good ball handler, a fine floor man, and a good shot describe Dick, on this, his first year on the varsity.

STEVE MERK — Playing his first year of basketball, Steve showed that he was not only a football and track star but also a good basketball player.

JACK PALMER — "Tillie" was another good player that filled in for the first five at any time.

NORM SHELLEY — Captain of the team and a fine all-round player, Norm returned from the Navy to spark many a win. He was runner-up in the scoring column.

DICK STARR — Lanky Dick filled in for Dean Todd when the fouls caught up with Dean or when Dick's height was needed.

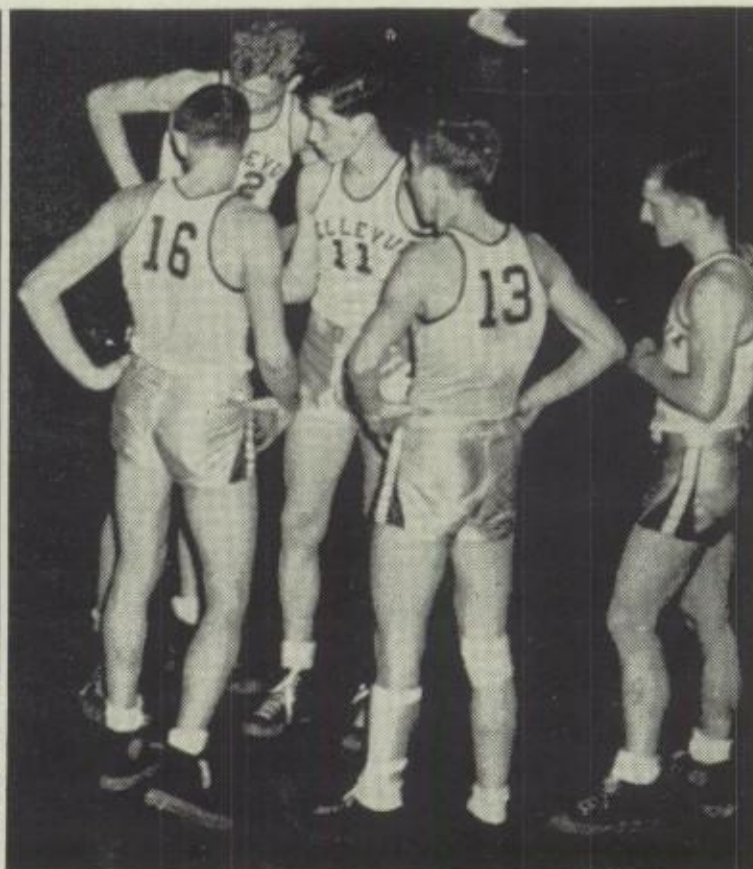

DEAN TODD — The tallest man on the team, Dean did a splendid job on rebounds and defense. Time after time he got the tip-offs over even taller opponents.

JACK HETER — Jack kept score for all the games, wrote for the paper, and attended to all the minor business of running a team.

LEE FRITZ — Lee was Jack's assistant, who kept the shot chart and helped to keep the players well supplied with towels.

Under the guidance of Coach Joe Ayers the "Junior Redmen" finished the 1946-47 season with a successful record of twelve wins to five setbacks. Nine times the reserves held their opponents to fewer than twenty points for a single ball game.

Since the Jay-Vees had a large stock of sophomore talent, the prospects for these future varsity warriors are bright.

VARSITY "B" CLUB

A new organization made its debut this year at Bellevue High School when Coach Kenny Sampson introduced the Varsity B Club, which is made up of varsity players who have won major letters. The group inaugurated luncheon meetings every third Wednesday. These provided the boys with a great deal of fun and a chance to iron out club problems.

fleet footed . . . TRACK

The Bellevue Redmen thinclads, under the direction of Coach Del Johnson, began 1947 track activities on April 11, by defeating Tiffin Columbian, 93½ to 24½. Later the Redmen were edged by the Clyde Fliers, 78 to 64, but they came back to triumph over Norwalk, 68½ to 49½. Although the 1947 tracksters failed to score in the Mansfield Relays, when the Comet went to press they were well on the way to duplicate the success of last season.

1946

The complete season record of last year's league runner-up squad follows:

Bellevue 66 —Amherst 52
 Bellevue 98 —Tiffin Columbian 20
 Bellevue 91 2/3—Republic 26 1/3
 Bellevue 81½ —Norwalk 36½
 Bellevue 58 1/3—Clyde 59 2/3
 Bellevue 73 —Monroeville 27, Castalia 26
 League meet: Upper Sandusky (First) 72, Bellevue (Second) 53½.

Besides the regular meets, the 1946 Cindermen under the direction of Coach Sam Cooper finished ninth in the DeVilbiss Relays and sixth in the district meet at Mansfield.

Major letters were awarded to Dale Campbell, Bill Serraino, Hal Shelley, Ralph Kieser, Bob Canfield, Mel Shelley, Dean Brown, and Lyle Moyer, all of whom graduated, and Milt Bruckner, Don Moyer, Steve Merk, Gene Grote, and Dean Todd.

Seniors Don McClintock and Daryl Shupp won minor awards, while underclassmen Frank LaSalle, Dick Starr, Bill Brown, Jim Gabel, and Neil Friend earned the minor monograms.

INTRAMURALS

Another successful intramural season at Bellevue High School is drawing to a close as this book goes to press. Physical Education Director, Del Johnson, operated a full-time home-room and individual participation schedule. Practically every boy in high school entered some activity.

Coach Johnson was assisted by Darrell Moyer, student director of intramurals. The boys also participated in the annual Sports Parade.

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

SOCCKER reached an all-time high this year in the girls' Intramurals played at noons on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Forty-three Wapika Sheshuaga (skillful girls) participated in this sport, comparatively new to B. H. S. From the four fighting teams, Team II emerged as the winning maids in the Round Robin Tournament. It was captained by Nora Starr and was composed of B. Bandy, M. Downs, M. Krupp, M. Mahl, E. Monarchi, L. Papke, R. Pittenger, A. Phillips, J. Sberna, B. Springer, V. Tusing, V. Wongler, and B. Ferres.

VOLLEYBALL held the interest of eighty-nine girls in November and December. Victor in this Round Robin Tournament was the Senior Six, a team captained by Sue Reitzel. The team members were J. Erf, M. Koch, M. Lamb, R. Pittenger, and V. Tusing.

A fast and shifty Sophomore team claimed the title in BASKETBALL. The eighty-five athletes were divided by Chief Squaw Miss Ethel Grover into two divisions, Junior-Senior and Freshman-Sophomore. The winners of the two divisions, a Senior team and the Sophomore team, entered the finals. The Sophomore team, consisting of L. Papke, I. Weishart, M. Metzger, N. Huston, J. Radkey, J. Bodey, B. Bandy, R. Bean, and B. Cloud, proved to be too strong for the Senior team.

The "Dead Eyes of the Hoop" in the FOUL SHOOTING contest are Agnes Mahl for the juniors and seniors and Sally Ocker for the freshmen and sophomores.

Tournaments of Badminton, Ping Pong, Softball, Swimming, and Tennis are in progress as the Comet goes to press.

The boys and girls combined to present an Intramural SPORTS FESTIVAL in March for the benefit of the public. Relays, boxing, tumbling, and pyramids comprised the program. For this occasion two girls' All-Star Basketball Teams were chosen by Miss Grover. An exhibition game was presented by the All-Stars at the close of the Festival. A full length game was played at noon at a later date. The Blue Team beat the White Team in both games.

G.A.A. . . .

An outstanding honor for any girl is to be awarded a "B" in the G. A. A. To gain this letter a student must have earned 250 points in Girls' Intramurals. Those who were awarded "B"s are:

R. BALDWIN
J. ERF
P. FOX
J. HAMER

F. KIESER
S. REITZEL
D. SHELLEY
J. ZEHNER

A G. A. A. member must have earned 80 points to be admitted to the club.

The club was unusually active this year. In February representatives journeyed to Sandusky for a District Volleyball Tournament. The team reached the semi-finals where they were beaten by Galion. Galion went on to win over Mansfield for the title.

In April, twelve members attended a Play Day at Bowling Green State University.

To be in the Aquatics club, a girl must pass a test set up by the members of the club. This test varies each year.

The splashing mermaids met once a week after school on Wednesdays with their adviser, Miss Ethel Grover.

When the girls entertained their guests in November at the annual Splash Party in the pool, the evening was spent in swimming, games, and relays. Refreshments were served in the Home Ec Lab.
